

India's 1st International Convention on Colourants - 2005

3-4 February, 2005 - Hotel Leela Kempinski, Mumbai

Panel Discussion

Chairman

Prof. E. H. DARUWALLA

BIO-DATA

Received M.Sc. (Tech) from University of Mumbai and Ph.D. from University of Manchester.

He was Professor of Textile Chemistry and Director of University Department of Chemical Technology as well as Director and Research Advisor, Bombay Textile Research Association.

He was decorated with fellowship of the Royal Society of Chemistry, London, Indian Academy of Sciences (India) and Textile Association of India.

He was visiting Professor to the University of Upsala, Sweden, and also to Institutes in Soviet Union and UAR. He has delivered several lectures by invitation keynote addresses and seminars under aegis of learned bodies in USA, UK, France, Germany, Switzerland, Hungary, Romania and several countries of South East Asia.

Recipient of Gold Medal from Society of Dyers and Colourists, UK, National award for meritorious invention, National Research Development, Indian Merchants Chamber, distinguished Alumnus Award, UICT and other organisations.

Main contributions to textile sciences is in dye-fibre interactions, photochemistry of dyes and textile fibres and structures of textile fibres.